8. GUARANTEE

- 8.1 The Guarantee will become valid when the full fee is paid by the Client to the Agency on the candidate start date with the Client. If the Candidate is found to be technically incompetent for the position in which employed, the Client must have informed the Agency in writing of any problems thereof and give the Agency an opportunity to assist in solving any issues. These issues must be reported whilst the Candidate is still within the guarantee period.
- 8.2 The guarantee will not apply if the Candidate leaves the Client's employment due to:
 - 8.2.1 Operational requirements.
 - 8.2.2 Unfair labour practice, or
 - 8.2.3 The Client breaching any terms of the Agreement with the Candidate referred by the Agency.

- 8.5 Whilst every effort is made by the Agency to secure a suitable Candidate for the vacancy, either by telephonic interviews, in person interviews or interviews using the World Wide Web, the decision to hire and retain Candidates, remains the decision of the Client.

8.6 If the Candidate's employment with the Client is ended because the Client regards the Candidate as technically incompetent, the Agency will endeavour to find a replacement Candidate for the same position within one month provided the terms of the Guarantee have been met. The original fee charged to the Client for this position will be credited and a new fee for the replacement Candidate will be calculated and invoiced to the Client. This fee will be based on the annual Total Cost to Company package of the replacement Candidate.

9.2.1 Employment terminated within 2 weeks 70% (Credit Note).

9.2.2 Employment terminated within 4 weeks 50% (Credit Note).

9.3 If the Guarantee is not validated by the Client, the Agency will not provide the Client with a replacement Candidate or with a credit towards the fee due to the Agency, even if the Candidate's employment is terminated due to technical incompetence. In this case, the Client becomes responsible for the total amount due on the original invoice issued by the Agency.

9.4 The terms of the Guarantee provide for a replacement Candidate and/or credit note to be credited against the fee due to the Agency. If the Client wishes to request either of these, this must be done in writing to the Agency within 48 hours of the last day of employment of the Candidate. The written request must include the date on which the Candidate left the Client's employment.
